Coronary AV fistula from circle of Vieussens

Dr.D.Kannan*

(Raymond de Vieussens, 1641-1715, French anatomist), described collateral circulatory connection between the conus artery of the right coronary and a proximal right ventricular branch of the left anterior descending artery. This collateral circle provides flow to reconstitute a proximally occluded left anterior descending artery or less frequently a proximally occluded right coronary artery.

*Cardiologist, Travancore Medical College, Kollam